Guy Fawkes and the Gunpowder Plot

Guy Fawkes and the Gunpowder Plot

Guy Fawkes was one of the group of men who plotted to blow up the Houses of Parliament in 1605. The Roman Catholic plotters wanted the Protestant King James to be more tolerant to Catholics. One plotter sent a letter to warn a friend not to go the Houses of Parliament. The King found out and his guards searched the cellars of Parliament and found Guy Fawkes.

Go through the maze joining up the multi-word verbs which complete the sentences. If you join them up correctly and take the alphabet letters in the corners of the squares you will see the name of the leader of the plotters.

It was late at night when Guy Fawkes ..... to the cellars of the Houses of Parliament. He looked round for somewhere to sit. At first he ..... on one of the barrels, but then he felt tired so he ..... on the floor. He fell asleep for a few minutes but ..... when he heard a noise. He ..... quickly and hid behind a barrel. A voice ..... "Who's there?!". Suddenly a group of guards ..... and ..... one of the barrels. They ..... the corner and saw something move. Guy almost ..... as he tried to ..... but they ..... him and caught him. He was ..... tortured and executed and a few days later all the other plotters were caught and killed too. Now English people burn a 'guy' on a bonfire each November 5th to remind everyone of that moment in history.
